Yonkers Police conduct death investigation

Yonkers, NY – The Yonkers Police Department is currently conducting a death investigation into the untimely passing of a police officer with the New York City Police Department. Around 3AM this morning, Yonkers Police members responded to a location on Shoreview Drive on a report of a suicide. Thereat officers located the victim unresponsive and apparently deceased; the victim was subsequently pronounced at scene. Preliminary investigation has yielded no indications of foul play, and the manner of death appears self-inflicted in an apparent suicide. Detectives are continuing the investigation in collaboration with the Westchester County Medical Examiner's Office.

No further information regarding this incident will be released at this time. The Yonkers Police Department offers its sincerest condolences to the family, friends, and colleagues of the deceased. ###
